LICK FAMILY VIOLENCE

CORPUS CHRISTI

When you see ladies waving Tootsie Pops at you after Masses October 26th and 27th, they're on a mission! It's part of a yearly drive by St. Ann's and the Diocesan Council of Catholic Women to raise funds to help stem family violence or provide aid to those who suffer from it. As you munch on your sucker, think of those who suffer emotional, financial, physical or sexual abuse in their own homes. The funds collected from your generosity will be sent by our parish to an intervention project to help prevent violence before it happens. Thank you!--and give your family a hug.

That Man Is You

Men's group on Sunday nights from 7:00 - 8:30 pm will meet at St Joseph in the social hall.

Call Ron White 715-820-1704 with questions.

From a young age, I loved winning at sports. I confess that winning was a bit of an addiction. It was probably coming from a deep desire for attention and affirmation from others. Nevertheless, it was a driving motivation for me. Baseball, soccer, track, table tennis, and whatever else I could find was a chance to win. Competition was my obsession.

Another John, and his brother James, demonstrate a kind of wildly competitive obsession when they dare to say to Jesus: "Grant us to sit, one at your right hand and one at your left, in your glory" (Mark 10:37). Their audacity arouses an indignant reaction from the other apostles, who are clearly raw that these two are out to win the highest spots.

How does Jesus respond to us in our desires for greatness? The same way he does to James and John. He does not criticize them for their desire for glory. But he does highlight their ignorance ("you do not know what you are asking."). Then he invites them to be champions of true greatness: by drinking not the cup of worldly victory, but his cup of self-giving suffering love, to be the "slave of all." The true winners are slaves of love. This week, dare to tell Jesus what your ambitions truly are. Hear him call you to an even greater victory.

— Father John Muir

SOCIETY OF ST VINCENT DE PAUL

St. Joseph Conference

Twenty-Ninth Sunday in Ordinary Time:

In the Gospel today Jesus tells his disciples: "Anyone among you who aspires to greatness must serve the rest; whoever wants to rank first among you must serve the needs of all."

Anyone who supports the work of St. Vincent de Paul, in prayer, and/or material help, is giving hope to your neighbors who are suffering in poverty.

In our Conference here at St. Joe's we see the needs of the poor ever increasing and it most certainly affects our ability to assist with adequate resources. Affordable housing here in Door County is a huge issue for us as we try to help both the homeless and the working poor, who simply cannot afford the basic necessities of life. Remember them in any way you are able.

"We should strive to keep our hearts open to the sufferings of other people, and pray continually that God may grant us that spirit of compassion which is truly the spirit of God." (St. Vincent de Paul)
