PRAYER OF THE WEEK

Prayer for Generosity

Lord, teach me to be generous.
Teach me to serve you as you deserve;
to give and not to count the cost,
to fight and not to heed the wounds,
to toil and not to seek for rest,
to labor and not to ask for reward,
save that of knowing that I will do your will.
Amen.

YEAR END DONATIONS

CHARITABLE IRA ROLLOVERS/DISTRIBUTIONS

As another year ends, please note that Charitable IRA Rollovers allow individuals aged 70½ years or older to make qualified charitable distributions directly to charities from traditional individual retirement accounts (IRA). Since the funds are going to a charity, you are not required to report the distribution as income (or pay taxes on the distribution). Starting at age 70½, direct IRA distributions to qualified 501(c)3 charities may be an opportunity for both tax-relief and share your generosity.

Also consider that at age 72, the Internal Revenue Service requires withdrawal of funds from IRAs in statutorily mandated annual increments known as Required Minimum Distributions (RMDs). As you are aware, the way traditional IRAs are structured, an individual receives a tax deduction at the time of the contribution on the condition that withdrawals are taxed as ordinary income. This means two things: at age 72, distributions are required (there is a significant penalty for not taking a required annual distribution) and that these that RMD funds may push your adjusted income into a higher tax bracket.

Charitable IRA Distributions/Rollovers and Required Minimum Distributions satisfy the Internal Revenue Service's distribution rules. Charitable IRA/Required Minimum Distributions are not included in a donor's annual income and for some people they are a suitable tax-relief strategy. Please consult with your tax professional for guidance specific to your household before making any decisions. Your tax professional will review your portfolio to determine if your current assets can support contributions to non-profit organizations without impacting your overall financial plan.

Thank you for this consideration!

That Man Is You

Men's group on Sunday nights from 7:00 - 8:30 pm at St Joseph in the social hall.

Once at an evening Mass as a poor college student, the collection basket was fast approaching, and I only had a ten-dollar bill. I was planning on using that to buy my favorite Chipotle burrito that night for dinner. Should I keep the money? Who would know if I did? If I gave it away, what would I eat? Would I be okay? I kissed my future burrito goodbye, dropped the money in the basket, and winced. But strangely, the rest of the Mass I felt more engaged than usual. I had skin in the game. I left the Mass excited to see how God would take care of me. And he did, in amazing ways.

When the poor widow places two copper coins in the temple treasury, Jesus doesn't pity her. He praises her. He blesses her. He brags about her. He celebrates her as the temple's largest benefactor. Her giving is an act of radical, concrete trust in God. It is as if she is entering a new level of giving that excites Jesus, because she contributes not out of her abundance, but she gives "everything she had."

What a challenge this is to each one of us! How easy it is to ignore this! But imagine the eruption of the energy of faith, hope, and love that would be unlocked if our financial sacrifices to the Church actually tapped into daily bread and not only our disposable income. I challenge us to try this in some way this coming week and see what happens in our hearts. Even if it costs us a burrito.

— Father John Muir

SOCIETY OF ST VINCENT DE PAUL

ST. JOSEPH CONFERENCE

Thirty-Second Sunday in Ordinary Time:

In today's Gospel Jesus tells us: "I want you to observe that this poor widow contributed more than all the others who donated to the treasury.

They gave from their surplus wealth, but she gave from her want, all that she had to live on."

Ask yourself "Am I only giving from my surplus wealth?" Then think about how you are helping those who are suffering?

The needs in our community are great and without your prayers and support St. Vincent de Paul would not be able to serve those struggling in poverty. Help us help others.

"God calls us to serve the poor, sick, and others in need." (St. Vincent de Paul)
